

ENERGY OBSERVER

At Racer Marina from the 25th April until the 5th May 2022.

- The Energy Observer project is the first hydrogen and renewable energy-powered vessel. She is carrying out a 7-year odyssey (2017-2024) at sea across 50 different countries without emitting any greenhouse gas emissions or fine particles.
- They are a floating laboratory, they have a role as a tester of all the latest sustainable development technologies but also an educational role.
- They are actually in Singapore being their 70th stopover since the beginning.

The main characteristics of the ship are:

- Category: pleasure craft
- Grosse tonnage: 65 tons
- Length : 31 m
- Width: 13 m
- Weight: 34 tones
- Draft: 2,2m
- Air draft: 15m

